MESSAGE CALENDAR

HOUSE ACTION ON SENATE AMENDMENTS

*House Bill No. 1146 -- Children -- Requires court to make certain findings prior to committing or retaining child in state custody. Amends TCA, Title 37.

Senate Amendment No. 4

Amend House Bill No. 1146 by deleting all language following the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 37, Chapter 1, Part 1, is amended by adding the following language as a new, appropriately designated section:

(a) At any proceeding of a juvenile court, prior to ordering a child committed to or retained within the custody of the Tennessee department of human services, the court shall first determine whether reasonable efforts have been made:

(1) to prevent the need for removal of the child from his or her family, or

(2) to make it possible for the child to return home.

(b) Whenever a juvenile court is making the determination required by subsection (a), the Tennessee department of human services shall have the burden of demonstrating that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent the need for removal of the child or to make it possible for the child to return home.

(c) To enable the court to determine whether such reasonable efforts have been made, the department of human services, in a written affidavit to the court in each proceeding where the child's placement is at issue, shall answer each of the following questions:

(1) Is removal of the child from his or her family necessary in order to protect the child, and, if so, then what is the specific risk or risks to the child or family that necessitates removal of the child?

(2) What specific services are necessary to allow the child to remain in the home or to be returned to the home?

(3) What services have been provided to assist the family and the child so as to prevent removal or to reunify the family?

(4) Has the Tennessee department of human services had the opportunity to provide services to the family and the child, and, if not, then what are the specific reasons why services could not have been provided?

(d) Whenever a juvenile court is making a determination required by subsection (a), based on all the facts and circumstances presented the court must find whether:

(1) There is no less drastic alternative to removal.

(2) Reasonable efforts have been made to prevent the need for removal of the child from his or her family or to make it possible for the child to return home.

(3) Continuation of the child's custody with the parent or legal guardian is contrary to the best interests of the child.

(e) All parties involved in each proceeding shall receive a copy of the Tennessee department of human services' affidavit and shall have an opportunity to respond as allowed by law.

(f) Unless emergency removal is necessary, the Tennessee department of human services shall be provided no more than thirty (30) days to investigate and/or offer services to the family and child in cases where the petition is not filed by the department.

(g) As used in this act, "reasonable efforts" shall mean the exercise of reasonable care and diligence by the Tennessee department of human services to provide services related to meeting the needs of the child and the family.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect on becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.

Rep. DeBerry moved that the House concur in Senate Amendment(s) No(s). 4 to House Bill 1146, which motion prevailed by the following vote:
